

ST. EDMUND'S ACADEMY
AN INDEPENDENT SCHOOL

June 15, 2011

Dear Sixth Grade Students,

I hope this letter finds you enjoying your summer vacation with lots of time for reading! You may recall that your required summer reading book for entering sixth grade is The Midwife's Apprentice. Perhaps you have read his novel or perhaps you plan to read it closer to the start of school.

In addition to this novel, every student entering sixth grade is required to read four additional self-selected books and complete the Summer Reading Log (attached). Please submit the completed Summer Reading Log to Mrs. Patton the first day of school. In fact, this assignment will be your first graded English assignment of sixth grade. So, put your best effort forth to start the year off well. The attached Recommended Summer Reading List should prove helpful to you in making selections for summer reading.

You have my very best wishes for wonderful summer vacation; already I miss your smiling faces in the Upper School halls. Enjoy yourself, and KEEP READING!

Fondly,

Mrs. Harbist
