

Class of 1992

Bryson Datt

What have you been up to?

1. You were a part of the last all male graduating class. What did it mean to you at the time and how is it still significant to you?

At the time I didn't know the difference. Looking back today it was significant to have been part of the end of an era, and it certainly was an honor to conclude the 45 years of history that went before us.

2. Where did your journey take you after leaving St. Edmund's Academy and how are you still connected?

I attended Central Catholic followed by Washington & Lee University. After college I worked in Beijing, China for the China University of Political Science and Law before attending law school. I now work as a commercial litigator in Pittsburgh.

Today I am still connected to St. Edmund's through my service on the Alumni Council.

3. This class established this scholarship in memory of Alexander McAllister Feely and Bradley Laufman Henninger, two classmates from the Class of 1992. Tell us about their personalities and what this scholarship means to you.

Brad was one of the kindest, gentlest men I have ever known. Alex was an interesting guy who was always into something new.

I am glad that we have been able to put the scholarship together because it offers us the opportunity to carry on the solidarity that our class shared by honoring the members of our class that are no longer with us.

4. What are your favorite memories of St. Edmund's Academy?

My fondest memories are St. Edmund's center around the many legendary faculty members Jim Sciulli, Coach Gathagan, Mr. Hazlett, Father Appel, Linda Scahill, Mike Filosemi, Paula Feeney, and Judd Jenkins to name just a few. They all did a great job of creating a sense of community at St. Edmunds.

5. We understand that you still keep in touch as a class. We've noticed that each class has their own unique personality. Describe the Class of 1992's personality.

The class of 1992 was an eclectic group of individuals that somehow managed to get along as a whole.

6. What advice would you like to give to the Class of 2008?

Start studying for those SATs.
