

Class of 1992

Carl Brown

What have you been up to?

1. You were a part of the last all male graduating class. What did it mean to you at the time and how is it still significant to you?

At the time, I think that I was aware of the significance of being a part of the last all-male class, but it was not something that I thought about much. I knew that our class was special, but for the majority of my time at St. Edmund's there were always other all-male classes still in the school. Now that all of the classes are co-ed, I see how it was really unique being part of the last all-male class.

2. Where did your journey take you after leaving St. Edmund's Academy and how are you still connected?

After graduation, I attended The Kiski School for my Freshman year, and then I transferred to The Taft School for the remainder of high school. I then went to The Johns Hopkins University for undergrad, and I got my Master's degree in Public Health there as well. I am now about to begin medical school at Southern Illinois University School of Medicine in the Fall. My classmates and I are still connected because we all share the same common bond of being at St. Edmund's. From the day that we graduated until the day that we die, we will continue to share that common bond. We call each other periodically, and see whomever we can when we are in the same area.

3. This class established this scholarship in memory of Alexander McAllister Feely and Bradley Laufman Henninger, two classmates from the Class of 1992. Tell us about their personalities and what this scholarship means to you.

Bradley was a sensitive and shy individual. Yet, I remember Brad as being a very happy person. He loved his family, his dog, Oreo, Kennywood, and our fellow classmates. Brad could also be a little "devilish" at times. He was great at making those around him have fun. Alex was the "big guy". He was the tallest kid in our class from the beginning. He was the guy that you went to when you had trouble winning a video game, or had some computer trouble.

The scholarship means to me that we will never let Brad and Alex, and anyone else from the class, be forgotten. We, as a class, will always be associated with St. Edmund's. A place that brought us all together, and gave us so many wonderful memories.

4. What are your favorite memories of St. Edmund's Academy?

- 1. The 8th Grade Class Cruise to the Bahamas
- 2. Friday afternoon Floor Hockey Games with Mr. Filosemi and Mr. Jospheh
- 3. The hoagie sale in 6th Grade
- 4. The teacher's games: Mr. Scuilli's (horserace, math lacrosse, on which continent, spin and spell), Mrs. Snyder's (latin basketball), Father Appel's (any game that we came up with in his classroom)

5. We understand that you still keep in touch as a class. We've noticed that each class has their own unique personality. Describe the Class of 1992's personality.

We are a family. We all are each other's brother, and we share each others' accomplishments and losses.

6. What advice would you like to give to the Class of 2008?

Stay in touch with each other. You may not realize it now, but these friendships will be something that you will appreciate later in life.
