

Class of 1992 Chad Spiker

What have you been up to?

1. You were a part of the last all male graduating class. What did it mean to you at the time and how is it still significant to you?

Being a part of the class instilled a great sense of comradery among us. Friendships which will last a lifetime.

2. Where did your journey take you after leaving St. Edmund's Academy and how are you still connected?

I went to Taylor Allderedice and then the University of Vermont.

3. This class established this scholarship in memory of Alexander McAllister Feely and Bradley Laufman Henninger, two classmates from the Class of 1992. Tell us about their personalities and what this scholarship means to you.

Two very good friends who are still missed to this day. The scholarship is a way to honor the memory of two people whose lives were tragically cut short.

4. What are your favorite memories of St. Edmund's Academy?

The teachers especially Charlie Appel and Coach Gathagan.

5. We understand that you still keep in touch as a class. We've noticed that each class has their own unique personality. Describe the Class of 1992's personality.

6. What advice would you like to give to the Class of 2008?

Stay in touch with your friends, you never know when you will reconnect after high school or even college.

--