

Class of 1992 Erik Nordby

What have you been up to?

1. You were a part of the last all male graduating class. What did it mean to you at the time and how is it still significant to you?

Being the last class of all boys at St. Edmund's created a sense of being part of something important to the school. We were the last of the old guard and I think it bonded the class in a unique way. That being said it was also nice to have young ladies around the school.

2. Where did your journey take you after leaving St. Edmund's Academy and how are you still connected?

I attended Shady Side Academy from 92'-96' Then on to University of Colorado in Boulder from 96' to 00'. I graduated with a B.A in journalism. From there I moved to San Francisco where I produced afternoon drive time news on the ABC owned and operated KGO Radio. From there I worked for TV development company with first look deals with HBO and then with Touchstone. Finally I became the director of content acquisitions and online programming at the Emmy Award winning cable network Current TV. I just resigned my position to attend the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University in the Fall. I am also getting married to my fiancé Melanie Madigan this summer.

3. This class established this scholarship in memory of Alexander McAllister Feely and Bradley Laufman Henninger, two classmates from the Class of 1992. Tell us about their personalities and what this scholarship means to you.

Alex and Brad were both exceptional human beings. Kind, fun loving and genuine people. I miss them both deeply and am happy their legacy continues with this scholarship.

4. What are your favorite memories of St. Edmund's Academy?

Friday Pizza, Coach's Gym class, Mr. Joseph's woodshop, Mr. Hazelet's History class.

5. We understand that you still keep in touch as a class. We've noticed that each class has their own unique personality. Describe the Class of 1992's personality.

We are a tight group of people. We have an email alias that we keep in touch through and also spend time during the holidays at a local drinking hole.

6. What advice would you like to give to the Class of 2008?

Study hard, play sports and act in every play you can get into.

Any other comments?

I love St. Edmund's. I spent some very happy years there and cherish the memories fondly.
