

Class of 1992

Joe Falcon

What have you been up to?

1. You were a part of the last all male graduating class. What did it mean to you at the time and how is it still significant to you?

As the last male class, we were distinguished as the end of an era, and I believe we were great representatives of this last class.

I believe we had a great opportunity to excel academically, but also as young men.

To this day, I feel my education and experiences at SEA helped make me who I am today.

2. Where did your journey take you after leaving St. Edmund's Academy and how are you still connected?

I went to public high-school (Fox Chapel Area High School). After graduation, I went to Penn State, majoring in Material Science and Engineering and then received a Juris Doctorate from Duquesne Law School. I currently practice litigation and labor law with Morgan Lewis in Philadelphia, but I will plan on joining Barley Snyder in the Fall (patent attorney).

I wish I could say that I stay connected to SEA, but I do not. I no longer live in Pittsburgh, and have two children under 3.

3. This class established this scholarship in memory of Alexander McAllister Feely and Bradley Laufman Henninger, two classmates from the Class of 1992. Tell us about their personalities and what this scholarship means to you.

When you spend 8 years of your life with the same 22 class mates, you not only become friends but family. This is the way that I regard each of them.

I can remember both class mates very well. To this day, I still have great memories about my class mates and experiences at SEA.

Alex was always very friendly, motivated and strong. He always seemed determined to succeed in what he put his mind to. Brad was always so humble. He never made an effort to impress. He led by example.

4. What are your favorite memories of St. Edmund's Academy?

I remember my experiences very vividly.

I can remember my first day in the first grade to the Turkey Bowl. The bingo nights to floor hockey during PE. There are so many.

There are certain teachers that I quote to this day, including Charlie Appel, Mr. Sciuli and Mr. Hazlett. I feel that Mr. Hazlett was one of the best teachers I have ever had.

5. We understand that you still keep in touch as a class. We've noticed that each class has their own unique personality. Describe the Class of 1992's personality.

I think our class was unique, in that a majority of us went to school together for 8 years. Unlike most schools, we only had 22 class mates. We became very close. You could not avoid confrontation, but at the same time you could always rely on each other.

6. What advice would you like to give to the Class of 2008?

Enjoy your life and always believe in something.

Try and make friends with the "geeks and nerds" in High School. They always turn out to be the most successful.

Any other comments?
