

Class of 1992

What have you been up to?

1. You were a part of the last all male graduating class. What did it mean to you at the time and how is it still significant to you?

It was an honor at the time to be a part of the history of St. Edmund's last male class. Looking back with all the change at St Edmund's it still resonates as a significant memory, but change is what the world is all about. I believe the end of an era of all boy's was the beginning of new and improved St Edmund's.

2. Where did your journey take you after leaving St. Edmund's Academy and how are you still connected?

I graduated form University of New Hampshire and remained in New England. I am currently living in Boston and do sales for Ruby Wines a wine distributor. Carl and I are still trying to get the Scholarship up and running which gives us a chance to communicate with the class.

3. This class established this scholarship in memory of Alexander McAllister Feely and Bradley Laufman Henninger, two classmates from the Class of 1992. Tell us about their personalities and what this scholarship means to you.

Brad and Alex were one of a kind. Brad was as down to earth as they come. He was a friend that would be there for you at the drop of a hat and never ask a favor in return. He always was the quiet leader that made us better people when we listened closely. Alex actually was to smart for his time. He was always on the cutting edge of technology and mental self-awareness. His strength and courage to overcome many challenges made him a better man then most.

My fond memories of my dear friends are what this scholarship means to me. I loved both of them dearly and miss them always.

4. What are your favorite memories of St. Edmund's Academy?

10 years of my life was spent in the halls of St. Edmunds. I grew up with my classmates as if they where brothers. I believe the time I spent growing and learn with my friends were the best memories I have.

5. We understand that you still keep in touch as a class. We've noticed that each class has their own unique personality. Describe the Class of 1992's personality.

Loving and free thinkers. We were all unique, but had a single goal making the best of all situations.
